

Train the Trainer – Certificate in Virtual Training

The Certificate in Virtual Training will teach trainers how to transition their training for virtual delivery, adapting their skills to deliver highly effective, online training.

In today's environment, online delivery and virtual facilitation are critical skills for trainers. Even for those with experience, running training sessions using web-based platforms is a completely different experience to classroom, training room or face to face delivery.

This 2.5 day programme (split into half day sessions) will take trainers through the essential principles for delivering learning in a virtual environment, preparing them to manage the complexities of facilitation and technology alongside maintaining learner

Who should attend?

- In-house trainers who want to design, develop, and deliver effective virtual training workshops.
- Qualified or experienced trainers who are looking to develop their training skills and transition to virtual delivery.

What are the benefits?

- Training techniques needed for today's world helping you to apply best practices for delivering highly effective, online training delivery.
- Confidence in the ability to manage virtual sessions and how to keep learners engaged.
- Ability to develop and adapt your content for online delivery, taking your programmes into the virtual world.
- Hands on experience in delivering in a virtual environment with feedback from peers and a virtual training expert.
- Certificated learning – those that successfully pass the assessment will receive an e-certificate to validate skills as an effective virtual trainer.

Train the Trainer – Certificate in Virtual Training

What will the learning experience include?

- Introduction to digital delivery
- Using virtual platforms to deliver online training
- Planning, writing, and adapting content for virtual delivery
- How to effectively lead, facilitate and deliver on a virtual platform
- The course will be assessed by completion of a virtual micro delivery.

We recognise that the most important asset to any business is the people in it and that's why all of our learning workshops can be developed to meet your individual employee's needs.

This workshop will cost £700 per person for a maximum of 6 delegates, to be delivered in-house at a venue of your choice.

Register your interest with us, or book your Train the Trainer workshop today!

